NHS INCREASED BY 67 NEW MEMBERS

Sixty-seven new members were inducted into the Pershing Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society on Friday, April 20.

The ceremonies began at 7:00 p.m. with Rayford High, the induction chairman, saying a prayer. He then introduced Mr. Ratliff and then Mr. Denson who explained the working of the Society.

Five members of the Honor Society gave talks on the five points considered for entrance into the Society. Kenneth Carr spoke on Scholarship; John O'Heeron on Service; Alan Haufrecht on Leadership; Rise Finch on Citizenship; and Penny Penland on Character.

Mr. Ridley, sponsor of the Honor Society, then gave the pledge to the inductees. Jimmy Lindley, president of the Honor Society, called the inductees forward, and Mr. Ratliff, Principal, gave them their membership cards.

The new members are as follows: Judith Allen, Linda Ames, Robert Arnett, Elene Baernstein, Roy Bobo, Judy Bond, Mark Bowden, Miriam Bower, Marvin Brener, Susan Brogan, Miki Carlisle, Ann Cleary.

Also: Jessica Darling, Walter DeFoy, Warren Dillard, Betty Dreher, Suzie Dreschel, Betty Ellington, Judy Galeener, Frances Harrison, Tony Harwell, Jo-nane Hedges, Sally Henderson, Virginia Hill.

Others are: Jan Hinds, Marcia Horton, Patti Howard, Patty Huston, Larry Iblison, Gary Johnson, Kay Ann Johnson, Todd Johnson, Sarah Juniel, Nancy Kleir, Bob Kottwitz, Elizabeth Lamkin.

Still others are: Nancy La Motta, Marsha Langston, Sharon Landstrom, Barry Madden, Sandra Marr, Judy Matthews, Intz McKeever, Victor Meyers, Bobby Murray, Margaret Natho, Martha Parrish, Let Patillo, Jean Phelps.

Others include: Marla Rankin, Charles Redmon, Linda Riedel, Sara Lou Rutherford, Andy Seidel, Patricia Settle, Isabell Smither, Joan Soehnlein, Carol Jane Storn.

Also: Linda Taylor, Joyce Turner, Sheila Ullrich, Carol Ann Voss, Judith Wagner, Jay Walrath, Lu Ann Watson, Rui Wise, and Bob Wynne.

From the time these inductees arrived at school on that Friday until 3 o'clock they had to stay dressed in their initiation costume, which was really quite hilarious.

The last scheduled meeting of the Honor Society was held on Friday, April 27, during first period. A gift of a "Parker 51" desk set was presented to Mr. Ridley, the sponsor of the Honor Society.

May 24 Marks H-9 Festivities

JULIA BANKS

Pershing's H-9's will have a banquet and dance to celebrate graduation. The festivities will be held in the school cafeteria from 6 to 11 p.m. on May 24.

Entertainment has Audrey Riggs, Rise Finch, Barbara Axelrod and Andy Seidel. The Program Committee sponsored by Miss Curson has Mark Bowden, Jimmy Lindley, Betty Bowman, Sukey Fenoglio, Pam Popkin, and Henry Milam.

The H-9 gift will be a blue back stage curtain. The banquet and gifts were decided upon with the help of the H-9 Council, sponsored by Miss Gregory.

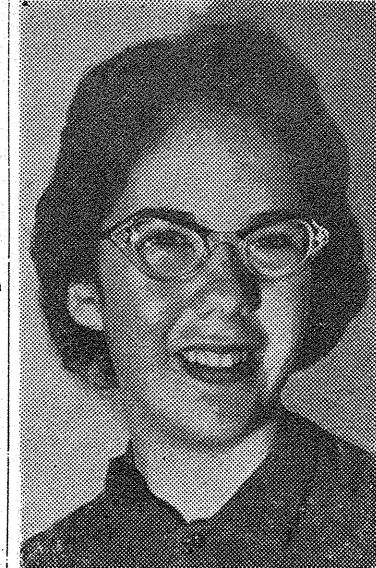

Speller Is Capitol Bound

By Robert Donaldson

Out of a field of 23 finalists Catherine Carl of Pershing came through to win the Houston Area Spelling Bee Finals sponsored by the Houston Press.

Catherine will go to Washington in May for the National Spelling Bee with about 50 other contestants.

The Bee was held April 282

CATHERINE CARL

at 9:30 a.m. on the stage of the Cullen Auditorium and was televised over Channel 8.

After one and a half hours of hard spelling Catherine and Margaret Cooper, 14, of Conroe were the only ones left. Fifty-five words were spelled between them and finally Margaret missed on "fricasee." Catherine spelled it correctly and won the crown by spelling "fiduciary."

Catherine is the second Pershing student to win the crown in two years. Last year's winner was Barbara Grevsy.

Good luck Catherine in your trip to Washington. Pershing is very proud of you!

Four Students Win Gold Ribbons In Flower Show

By Matie Belle Medlin

The annual Pershing Flower Show held April 17 was a huge success. There were many artistic and beautiful arrangements in fields such as miniature gardens, small arrangements, dried arrangements, grasses and foliage, and fresh garden flowers.

From the teachers' table there were many awards. Mrs. La Verne won a gold ribbon, which is most outstanding, and two hard spelling Catherine and Margaret Cooper, 14, of Conroe were the only ones left. Fifty-five words were spelled between them and finally Margaret missed on "fricasee." Catherine spelled it correctly and won the crown by spelling "fiduciary."

Catherine is the second Pershing student to win the crown in two years. Last year's winner was Barbara Grevsy.

Good luck Catherine in your trip to Washington. Pershing is very proud of you!

Vanita Berson, Carol Newberry, Bill Walset, and Carolyn Carothers.

First Place Winners receiving blue ribbons were: Joan Soehnlein, Cheryl Mullins, Matie Belle Medlin, Janis Berly, Bill Walser, and Norma Imlet. Others were Gayle Chernosky, Debbie Pancoast and David Everton.

Red ribbons were awarded to the following: Margaret Jeweth, Helen Schader, Willemena, D. Olphen, Rhonda Burrage, Margaret Moore, Pam Popkin, Carolyn Guess, Kad Wadsworth, Kay Kimall, Debbie Pancoast, Gayle Chernosky, Marilu Ellis, Claudia Williams, and Suzanne Ralston.

Third place winners receiving white ribbons were Kay Kimball, Sherilyn Mullins, Norma Imlet, Nancy Jane Walton, Kay Wadsworth, Max Washburn, Jerry Knight, Jeanne Moss, Donald Sowhlein, Sue Dushkin, Lyndal Ankenman, Carl Mitchell, David Eventon, Carolyn Barnes, Judy Emery, and Carol Evans.
